CONFIDENTIALITY CLAUSE

Confidential Information" means trade secrets, confidential data, and other non-public confidential proprietary information (whether or not labeled as confidential) including any and all financial terms of and products involved in the production and any and all information regarding the creative elements (including, without limitation, scripts and storyboards) whether communicated orally, in written form, or electronically. Confidential information does not include information that was lawfully in Extra Performer's possession prior to being disclosed in connection with the employment of Extra Performer, is now, or hereafter becomes generally known to the public, or that Extra Performer rightfully obtained without restriction from a third party. Extra Performer acknowledges that Extra Performer has and will become aware of certain Confidential Information. Unless otherwise required by law, Extra Performer agrees that, without Producer's prior written approval, Extra Performer shall hold such Confidential Information in the strictest confidence and that Extra Performer will not disclose such Confidential Information to anyone (other than Extra Performer's representatives in the course of their duties to Extra Performer, which representatives shall be bound by the same restrictions as set forth in this Agreement) or utilize such Confidential Information for Extra Performer's benefit or for the benefit of a third party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prohibit Extra Performer from disclosing Confidential Information concerning Extra Performer's wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment as that term is defined under Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act. For clarity, except as set forth above, Producer may not demand or request that Extra Performer execute any non-disclosure agreement that has not been approved in advance and in writing by the Union.
